Fall Courses 2019
Adult French Beginner 103
Mondays, August 19, to October 21, 2019

The Adult French Beginner 103 will meet every Monday, starting Monday, August 19, and go for ten weeks. (October 21, 2019). September 2, Labor Day, will be made up on Wednesday, September 4, 2019. Classes will be two hours at a time, from 5:45-7:45pm, and will be held at 74 Brook Hill Road, Hamden. Safe parking is available in private driveway. Limited to maximum 8 students.

This course is a continuation of French Beginner 102 and we will work mostly with the program French in Action by Pierre Capretz, starting with Chapter 10. This course is ideal for students who either would like to continue from the previous course or who have studied some French before and would like to refresh and intensify their skills. This course is conducted partly in French. All four language skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing will be practiced and homework will be assigned.

Videos to French in Action are easily accessible online. These videos also touch on grammar and vocabulary. If you watch videos 9 and 10 and feel comfortable to follow, this course is for you.
