French Movies

Arnold Gorlick will talk about French Movies at the home of Martha Venter 46 Cliff Street, New Haven . Arnold has been « une présence incontournable » (a force to be reckoned with) in films in New Haven County for the past 45 years. First as the manager of the York Square Cinemas on Broadway, later as the owner of the Madison Art cinemas, his venues have consistently brought in the biggest grosses in the state of Connecticut. He has also been a faithful friend of the Alliance Française of New Haven, and he has sponsored "Alliance Française screenings" of recent French films. Arnold has some ideas about the future of French and other foreign language films. There will be excerpts from some French films. ### May 2018

During our annual meeting we will also elect a slate of officers for the next two years. Dr. Marie Dominique Boyce resigned as Co-president in January. We wish to thank Dr. Marie-Dominique Boyce for her years of service to our Alliance first as President and then as Co-president. She put much of her time and energy into our organization. Danny Stone will step down as Director of the Café Littéraire in June. We thank him also for all his efforts. We wish them both well in all future endeavors.
